

holy week SERVICES

Maundy Thursday: March 29th 7:30 pm

We will gather for a special service at 7:30pm to remember the Last Supper that Jesus shared with his disciples.

Good Friday: March 30th 7:30 pm

At 7:30pm, we journey with Christ to the cross in the service of the Tenebrae (the name means "darkness or shadow"). This is a service of Bible readings and music leading us towards the cross and Christ's death. During the service, the candles are extinguished and the lights gradually dimmed signifying the darkening of the sun. The service closes as the Christ candle is taken out of the sanctuary and the congregation departs in silence. Join us @ 6:30 pm for a Meager Meal of soup & bread before the service.

Holy Saturday: March 31st 10-2:00

Prayer Stations

Stop by the Parish House between 10 and 2 to visit the Prayer Stations. You can do one, two or all of them; you can stay for 5 minutes or 35 minutes. Come and pray for our world, join your prayers with the prayers of others, as we discover the power of prayer to make a difference. These stations are interactive and appropriate for all ages.

Easter Sunday: April 1st

Bible Study—the life of David

Starting April 10th we will be looking at the life of David. Scripture says he was "a man after God's own heart." He was a courageous young boy, deeply spiritual, a musician, a leader, and a flawed human being. Join us as we explore David's life in the church library at 10:30 a.m and 7:30 p.m. on Tues. Use the office stairs.

Check out our beautiful bulletin board side door of the sanctuary. Fran does an excellent Job...
Thanks Fran !!!!

FISH & CHIPS

Fish & Chips was a great success this year serving 336 dinners and making $2570! A record high! We could not have done it without all the fabulous volunteers that helped plan, prepare, set up, donate and work at the dinner. We had over 30 helpers to make this event happen and Women's Association thanks those volunteers for their hard work and enthusiasm! It was a fun night!

Also, a huge thanks to our wonderful patrons who bought tickets and supported our event, we hope you enjoyed the dinner!

Sincerely,
